

Chris Misenas – Media Relations Personal Statement

My involvement in FSA began with ASF. FSA means a lot to me because it is the reason I'm here. I love the family involvement and community that surrounds FSA and how it brings everyone together. I don't know if you can find an organization on campus that has the kind of comfort level that comes with being involved in this organization. I want to give back to FSA because FSA has given so much to me. I feel like I want to be in core to directly represent what FSA represents and so that it can show what it means to the next few years.

Like in my previous response, I want to do anything I can to give back to the Filipino Student Association. I'm an art major and work a lot with digital graphics and I feel I don't have many talents like singing or dancing and I feel this is the best way for me to give back to something that has given me so much. Family, friends and a support system. I feel it's the only thing right now that I can do to be able to feel like I'm helping in core. I feel I'm pretty good as well in making fliers, posters and advertisements so I feel I would fill the spot well for FSA.

My goal is to keep people connected and educated in what's going on in FSA with my posters, fliers, word of mouth or anything. These goals are relative to FSA as a whole student organization because it helps people stay in touch with every aspect. I want everyone to be able to know what's going on and what's happening within FSA. Everyone should know that this event is happening then or that meeting is happening now. I want to be a big part of the connection between the FSA family.

I've done a lot of leadership programs. I've been a core leader for Youth Ministry, confirmation leader, sports coordinator for the associated student body, been a volunteer for ASF and going to be one for motivation conference. I've done t-shirt designs and posters this year for e2 organizations and SOAR. I feel like there's a whole lot of leadership roles I've been a part of and I know I can fulfill this role and be the leader of it, even if it is just me.
